MEASURES IUTRODUCED

Point Gas and Electric Company Pas ed by the Senate. One Retrenchment Bill Killed.

nish the said list to the treasurers of the various exunities and cities of the State, who shall sell the same, unless scorer red emed, in the month of September, 1898, due notice being required to be given of said sale.

The law as it now stands does not provide for proper notice of applications made to buy the lands through the clerks, the House of Delegates having foiled to pass the Senate bill providing for a correction of this evil. It is thought by S. nator Turnbull that t will be best to repeal the present law and enact in its place a provision directing all of said lands to be sold after sufficient notice is given, in order to give an who can redeem an opportunity to do so. Mr. Clayton offered a bill which requires that when any guaranty or indemnity company refuses to longer continue on the bond of an official, or give the dividual, the reason therefor shall be given in writing, and upon fellure to furnish such reason therefor shall be given in writing, and upon fellure to furnish such reason therefor shall be given in writing, and be responsible for all damages incurred.

Mr. Montague's bill incorporating the Hampton and Old Point this and Electric Company was passed by the Senate with are amendment thereto which, as immaterial and is a ceeped by the Senate with are mendment thereto which, as immaterial and is a ceeped by the patroners of the original bill. The bill is now on the delendar and the Senate amendment will be concurred in.

ment will be concurred in.

The three bills introduced yesterlay by Delegore Fratherston and referred to the retrenhment committee, will, if an, act d. effect a saving to the State of $25,300 annually. It does not abolish the adjutant generalship, but does materially reduce the "concurrence of the state of $25,300 annually.
